DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 12-17 and 24-27, drawn to A method for preparing and executing a self- test procedure to validate behavior of a processor model to be tested, the processor model being a processor or an associated simulator, the method comprising the step of causing the processor model to carry out a self-test procedure to validate the at least one instruction to be tested, the self-test procedure comprising initializing the elements of the processor model, executing the at least one instruction to be tested and obtaining a result, comparing the obtained result and the expected result, and returning a result word that is equal to a first value if the behavior of the processor model is right and a second value if the behavior of the processor model is not right, classified in class 714, subclass 736.
- II. Claims 18-23, drawn to A method for generating self-test programs to validate behavior of a processor model to be tested, the processor model being a processor or an associated simulator, the method comprising writing a self-test program to cause the execution of a self-test procedure by the processor model to validate the at least one instruction to be tested, the self-test procedure comprising initializing the elements of processor model, executing the at least one instruction to be tested and obtaining a result, comparing the obtained result and the expected result, and returning a result word that is equal to a first value if the behavior of the processor model is right and a second value if the behavior of the processor model is not right, classified in class 326, subclass 16.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions Group I and Group II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects as highlighted above in the previous paragraphs.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group II is not required for Group I, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 2133

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Christopher Regan on 12/1/2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Joseph D. Torres whose telephone number is (571) 272-3829. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 8-5.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Albert Decady can be reached on (571) 272-3819. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
